Fairfield Businessman Meets with Tiger Woods' Coach at Florida Show; Sees Improvement for 2010 Season

RIDGEFIELD, CT--Even when the region is still in the throes of deep winter, some of us in Fairfield must think seriously about green fairways and little white balls. Yes, it's a tough job, but somebody's got to do it.

That somebody last month was Skip Rooney, pictured left, of Golf-Art.com / The Frame Center on Route 7 in Ridgefield. One of the best ways to take the pulse for the upcoming golf season is to visit the annual PGA Golf Show in Orlando, FL, said Rooney, who has attended the annual show for the past 20 years. You can see who's purchasing, who's not, and get a quick and accurate read of the market the way you might a five-foot putt.

"I'm optimistic," Rooney said. "I think we're on our way out of the rough, finally. Many private golf clubs are going forward with more progressive programs than they were last year at this time."
